Weep not for the happy Dead.

There is a home where mortals rest, Far, far beyond this glittering sphere; Where friend meets friend-and all are blest Where sorrow never wakes a tears

'Tis where the weary find repose, A pillow for the aching head -Far, far from earth and all its woes, O, weep not for the happy deadl

Who, who would wish them back again. To drain the cup of worldly grief, To tread the path endure the pain, From which they find a sweet relief?

Soft be their rest beneath the turf That gently wraps their mouldering clay, We would not wish them back to earth, Again to tread life's thorny way.

Ah, no! we would not, if we could Dissolve their deep and dreamless sleep. And hid them stand where once they stood, Again to sigh, again to weep.

But still, the burning tear will start While bending o'er their silent urn, And sorrows shade comes o'er the heart, To think they never can return.

Yet, oh! it is a pleasing thought, And one that calms the troubled brea-t-To know there is an Eden spot, Where they have found eternal rest.

J. W. HARRIS, Agent.

Dr. Ball would here like to introduce a few of the many testimonials of the wonderful effects of his Sarsaparilla, but to publish the one quarter of the astonishing cures effected by the use of this truly great medicine, would require a volume of five hundred pages, and the Doctor has to be satis-fied by offering the opinions of a few distinguished men, believing that these opinions will be sufficient to induce all who are afflicted to give Bull's Sarsa-parilla a trial

TESTIMONIALS.

TESTIMONIALS.

Rev. E. W. Shon—Rev. E. Stevenson.—The following is a verbatim copy of a certificate now in the possession of the proprietor of Bull's Sarsaparilla. Rev. E. W. Schon'is widely and generally known as an eloquent an accomplished Pastor of the M. E. Church, and Rev. E. Stevenson has been known as one of the most talented and zealous members that the Ky., Conference could boast of for many years—and at this time is filling the high and responsible station of agent for the M. E. Bock Concern. Can the world produce better, or more satisfactory testimony in favor of any medicine?

What Dr. Pyles, Physician by appointment, to the Louisville Marine Hospital, says of Bull's Sarsaparille:-Louisville, March 20, 1849. I have examined the prescription for the prepara-tion of John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and I believe the combination to be an excellent one, and well calcu-lated to produce an alternative impression on the system. I have used it both in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla
